(54) Title: LIPOSOMAL ENCAPSULATED NUCLEIC ACID-COMPLEXES
(57) Abstract This invention relates to liposomes which are useful for the introduction of nucleic acids into cells. The liposomes of the present invention entrap a condensing agent-nucleic acid complex and are suitable for nucleic acid-transfer delivery vehicles in clinical use. In addition, methods of transfecting a cell with a nucleic acid using the liposomes of the present invention are also disclosed.
